Preference for class attendance, working in the labs and social interaction:

Due to logistical circumstance I will be accessing my classes in the following mode. This semester I will be:

- Living off-campus (more than 2 hours away) and working exclusively from the home.
- Living on-campus (*or close proximity) and working exclusively from my dorm.
- Living on-campus* and physically attending classes but most likely will NOT require access to the lab for most my homework.
- Living on-campus* and physical attending classes and WILL require regular access to the lab to complete my homework.

Based on what you know about your personal work habits, your concerns about emotional & physical well-being, and your comfort-level with social interaction check whatever boxes apply to your circumstances.

- Avoiding personal contact and social interaction whenever possible.
- Self-motivated enough to complete work without regular interaction.
- Personally feed off the interaction of fellow artists working in the labs.
- Need regular accountability and social reinforcement to complete my assignments.
- Never, EVER want to be left on my own. . . Please don't leave me.
- Anything else I should know about _____
